AZURE

To travel is to live, according to fairytale writer Hans Christian Andersen, and everyone here at Azure Collection would definitely agree. We'd also say that discovering somewhere new is one of life's most magical experiences and every year we aim to seek out fresh destinations to share with you. Among the new fairytale gems, you'll find an 18th century palace in Portugal and another resort that lets you live like a rock star in the canary islands.

We've long been regarded as Italian travel experts and we've been steadily extending our European portfolio. This year we've added the delights of Turkey, a country often called a bridge between East and West. So much of what we love to experience on holiday has its origins in this exotic land, including Turkish Baths or hammams and turquoise waters.

This year's new region is the Côte d'Azur, which has a name so similar to ours it should really have been an original destination in the Azure Collection! Beloved by movie stars, The French Riviera is renowned for glitz and glamour and fabled hotspots such as St. Tropez and Cannes have added even more gloss to these glossy pages. A visit to the Aegean paradise of Skiathos, home of smash hit movie 'Mamma Mia', gives you a real-life, feel-good, experience among the fig, olive and almond trees.

The Portuguese capital of Lisbon has been getting a lot of attention among foodies lately for its dynamic culinary scene, while the sheer energy of Madrid means it's always a thrilling city to visit, and with Crystal Cruises you can keep travelling and living life to the full as you drift along Europe's majestic rivers in style.

You can visit hundreds of enchanting destinations within these pages, before deciding where to escape to next. We can't wait to help you plan your fairytale adventures.

SPAIN Mainland & Balearic Islands

The Costa del Sol boasts the best beaches in Spain and some of the most glamorous cities. Visit Marbella for its glitzy nightlife, bars, clubs, discos and casinos, as well as its super yacht marinas. Off the east coast of Spain, the Balearic Islands – Ibiza, Formentera, Mallorca and Menorca - offer secluded beaches, clear waters, winding streets and castles. And the iconic party island of Ibiza may be a mecca for top DJs and all night ravers, but it also has a side with a laid back bohemian vibe, and some of the most stylish hotels in the Mediterranean.

WHAT'S ON

In Spain you'll find unique monuments, as well as outstanding museums and masterpieces of universal art. Take some time to enjoy a Tapas Segway Tour along with rock-climbing and kayaking which are among the many activities that Spain offers or simply visit local traditional food markets which would be a real treat for the senses. On the largest of the Balearic Islands, Majorca, a visit to the beautiful city of Palma and its stunning architecture is a must-do, while on Ibiza, take a trip to the alluring northern beaches which can be all but deserted.

HOW TO GET THERE

Daily direct flights to Malaga, Majorca and Ibiza can be booked easily with low-cost carriers from Manchester or London. British Airways and Iberia Airlines offer a wonderful scheduled service too but frequency is limited.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

Generally, May to September would be the best months to travel with temperatures averaging around 25°C. Climate during the winter is generally mild and dry with occasional showers.

MARBELLA CLUB, GOLF RESORT & SPA, Marbella

At first glance, the Marbella Club is a picture-perfect whitewashed Andalusian village. But look again, and you'll see an idyllic beachfront resort, sheltered by the Sierra Blanca Mountains and nestled in subtropical gardens. Founded by Prince Alfonso von Hohenlohe, it now comprises 35 guestrooms and 80 luxurious suites with furnished outdoor terraces, private gardens and pools as well as exclusive Andalusian-style villas in the heart of our resort. The showpiece restaurant is The Grill, which has attained a legendary status. The Beach Club is equally famous, thanks to the magnificent daytime buffets; traditional paella, European, Asian and Lebanese dishes all vie for your attention. There's an emphasis on wellness, with nutritionists and fitness experts to guide you through a holistic wellbeing experience. The Kids Club mini village also makes this a dream destination for families.

KEMPINSKI HOTEL BAHÍA, Estepona

Kempinski Hotel Bahía enjoys an enviable location, alongside El Paseo del Mar, less than five minutes' drive from Estepona, close to Marbella, and a short ferry ride from Tangier, Morocco. It's also the perfect base from which to enjoy the Costa del Sol's gastronomy, golf and culture.

Luxurious sunny rooms look out on the Mediterranean, pool or subtropical garden, while the exclusive suites, such as the Royal Suite, boast a skybar and private chill out terrace.

Indulge in a signature massage using quartz grains that deliver heat to deeper tissues, and the signature dish La Ventresca, 'pork of the sea' freshly caught from the Bay of Cadiz. There are even different locations to eat. Start with a breakfast buffet at El Mirador which has a kid's corner then head to Spiler Beach Club, named after Baltazar's brother. It's a casual hangout beside the sea, where you can eat burgers and seafood salads, chill out or party as the sun sets. Meanwhile the exotic Black Rose Bar takes its name from the legendary 16th century ship that sailed along the coast of Costa del Sol and sank pirate ships. Sip a cocktail with friends as you create your own story.

PORTUGAL & MADEIRA

One of Europe's oldest remaining nations, Portugal is a relatively tiny country, but what it lacks in size it more than makes up for in culture and character, with cobbled streets, quaint yellow trams, the exciting nightlife in Lisbon and pristine white sand beaches. Madeira is beloved by all ages for its pleasantly balmy climate, warm inviting seas, and botanical gardens, but increasingly it's attracting thrill seekers by offering activities such as mountain biking, canyoning and paragliding.

WHAT'S ON

There's an abundance of cultural events that take place in Portugal but The Algarve is where the majority happen! Every August there is a Medieval Fair hosted in the historical Silves, colourful market stalls fill the streets with plenty of activities to try. For the Equestrian in you, there's International Show Jumping in Estoril and don't forget about beautiful beaches to enjoy! Madeira hosts an array of festivals throughout the year, the Madeira Film Festival and Madeira's Wine Rally are among the most popular.

HOW TO GET THERE

You can get to The Algarve and Madeira very easily as there are frequent scheduled, charter and low-cost airlines that all fly direct to Faro Airport from Manchester or London.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

July is most definitely the hottest month in the Algarve, you will find the average temperature around 24°C, and the most daily sunshine is approx. 12 hours in August. And as for Madeira, August is the hottest month, temperatures are around 23°C. You can travel year round to both destinations though as the coolest temperature is in January at 16°C. Perfect for some winter sunshine.

TIVOLI PALÁCIO DE SETEAIS SINTRA HOTEL, Sintra

There's romance aplenty at the Tivoli Palácio de Seteais Sintra Hotel, which occupies an original 18th century palace in the UNESCO World Heritage Site of Sintra, one of Europe's finest examples of architectural Romanticism.

Nestled amidst pine-clad hills the town is blessed with a slightly cooler climate than the rest of the country, which made it a haven for the nobility who created flamboyant palaces, mansions and gardens among the charming cobbled streets.

This is a boutique hotel which stays true to its origins, with thirty rooms, from Deluxe Rooms to Diplomatic Suites, lavishly decorated with magnificent furnishings, paintings, and luxurious carpets. Enjoy a romantic dinner in one of the palace's ballrooms decorated with rare tapestries and frescos, or dine on the mountainside with unrivalled views of the Moorish Castle and Pena Palace. Wander the mazes, relax by the pool or indulge in a holistic treatment at the contemporary Anantara Seteais Spa. The signature massage for deep relaxation is complemented by a wine-based body scrub, fresh alpine air and idyllic forest surroundings. For a tonic of a different kind, sip a cocktail at the bar and enjoy panoramic views in Sintra.

THE ESSENTIALS Private Transfers are 30 minutes from Lisbon Airport / 30 Rooms & Suites / 3 Restaurants & Bars / Anantara Spa / Historical Landmark / Tennis

SIX SENSES DOURO VALLEY, Douro

Stay in a beautiful restored 19th-century hillside manor house with gorgeous views of the vineyards of the Douro Valley and winding river. Decor in the spacious rooms, suites and villas is contemporary and natural with subtle touches that hark back to the past. Wooden floors and floor-to-ceiling windows create a timelessly elegant vibe.

Restaurants at Six Senses Douro Valley celebrate the natural bounty of the region, taking produce from the fertile valley, local markets and organic garden on the estate. The Vale de Abraão Restaurant features the Open Kitchen and there's the chance to join a small group at Chef's Table, where you'll enjoy specially selected wines. There are a variety of wine-influenced activities here, including wine and dine Douro River cruises and the chance to take part in the age-old tradition of stomping grapes.

The Spa at Six Senses Douro Valley is central to your experience, bringing together the beauty of nature and Portuguese tradition with the elements of water, stone and wood. There are ten treatment rooms plus heated indoor pool with water jets, but Six Senses Spas go beyond the expected, taking you on a personal journey to lasting harmony through exercise and revolutionary nutritional plans.

VIDAGO PALACE HOTEL, Vidago

Vidago is a small spa town famed for its naturally sparkling medicinal waters which attracted royalty and aristocracy in bygone times. Now discerning travellers come here for rest and recreation in the delightfully elegant Vidago Palace Hotel, restored by skilled craftsmen to reflect the great aristocratic households of the Belle Époque, with a level of service to match.

Surrounded by 100 hectares of scented pine, cedar, rosemary and lavender in a fertile valley on the banks of the Ribeira de Oura river, the Hotel is an oasis of splendour and sophistication. Grand spaces are decorated with silk wallpapers, ornate dark carved wood furniture that's typically Portuguese, chandeliers in the Venetian style, mosaic floors and thick rugs.

The imposing Grand Ballroom Restaurant, which has always been the setting for lavish parties, is now a listed monument and gourmet restaurant. Sofas and chairs are arranged in small islands to create intimate spaces separated by tall plants and in the evening, the original bronze and crystal chandeliers sparkle majestically.

Naturally the Spa harnesses the curative powers of Vidago mineral water which is used in exclusive treatments and health programmes developed under the guidance of a highly specialised medical team.

THE ESSENTIALS Private Transfers are 70 minutes from Porto Airport / 70 Rooms & Suites / 7 Restaurants & Bars / Thermal Spa / Wine Cellar; Wine & Douro Valley Tours / Gym / 18-hole Golf Course / Brand new Kids Club

MADEIRA

A verdant oasis in the Atlantic Ocean, Madeira is one of Europe's most beautiful travel destinations, offering a continuous summer climate and wonderful flowers which bloom all year round in picturesque parks and gardens. Agriculture is still an important part of the island's resources and cultivated terraces adorn hillsides everywhere. Cosmopolitan capital city Funchal is nestled within banana plantations and nearby are seascapes with towering cliffs and sapphire waters, rustic villages, and dramatic mountain peaks. Traditional street markets, museums, festivals and carnivals provide plenty to do.

FRANCE

France is synonymous with chic style and fashion. Haute couture are after all French words, as is cuisine, which is French for 'kitchen'. So naturally this country is also the epicentre of gastronomy, from the patisseries, boulangeries and colourful street markets to fine dining restaurants. But fashion and food is not all that France has to offer. There's the sublime natural beauty of Provence that inspired Renoir, Cézanne and Picasso, and will make you feel as if you've stepped into an impressionist and the sheer unadulterated glamor of Cannes, synonymous with red carpet, movie star glitter. St Tropez is arguably Europe's most famous resort, ever since Bridget Bardot starred in 'And God Created Woman', and gave it a sexy, edgy reputation.

WHAT'S ON

Provence was once part of Roman Gaul, and there are plenty of monuments and ancient buildings to visit, such as the Papal Palace of Avignon, and Arles, the Capital of the Camargue. The landscape is rugged and wild, appealing to climbers and hikers. Explore the famous vineyards, lavender fields, and snow-tipped mountains and gorges, including Verdon Gorges, Europe's Grand Canyon. St Tropez's nightclubs keep its glamorous image alive, but there are also quaint cobblestone streets to wander; with quintessentially French images of old men playing pétanque beneath plane trees. Take a stroll along the Bay of Cannes, explore the cinema scene, and feel like a movie star yourself.

HOW TO GET THERE

Flights to Nice Côte d'Azur International Airport can be booked with British Airways, EasyJet, FlyBe as well as Air France. Flying time is around 2 hours.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

The hottest months run from May to September ranging from 21°C to 27°C. May is also home to The Cannes Film Festival and is a must for celebrity spotting and movie buffs. If however if you'd like to avoid the busy streets the summer brings with it, late spring and early winter offer fewer crowds and warm temperatures around 17°C.

GRAND-HÔTEL DU CAP-FERRAT, A FOUR SEASONS HOTEL, French Riviera

This peaceful and iconic palatial mansion on the French Riviera, near Nice and Monaco, encapsulates all the glamour of its legendary playground for the rich and famous and boasts one of the most elegant swimming pools in the world. The 74 guest rooms, including 24 suites and a private villa, are sheltered by pine groves and 17 acres of gorgeous gardens, with panoramic views of the Mediterranean.

The modern design by Pierre-Yves Rochon features white marble and fabrics to create a light and refreshing ambience that puts the colourful artwork and fabled French Riviera views centre stage. Some of the rooms are located in the original heritage building while others, such as the Four Seasons Pool Suites, offer a private sanctuary with infinity-edge swimming pool.

A glass funicular takes you down the hill to the sun terraces, private cabanas, Kid's Club and boutique at Club Dauphin. The stunningly beautiful Club Dauphin pool, built in 1939, came to symbolise the style and luxury of Grand-Hôtel du Cap-Ferrat, as does the Michelin-starred fine dining restaurant which features wide terraces sheltered under a canopy of Aleppo pines. Sip cocktails in the Le Bar beneath majestic Murano chandeliers and indulge in a signature aromatherapy massage at Le Spa, featuring the sound of Tibetan bowls and the scent of Sodashi oils.

The seaside resort of Saint-Jean-Cap-Ferrat offers the best of all worlds: natural beauty, tranquility and a central location that makes it the perfect base for exploring the cultural and culinary riches of the French Riviera. Explore forts, fortresses and castles, museums and theatres, Baroque churches, boutiques and bistros. And then return home to the little paradise of Paloma Beach, named after Paloma Picasso whose father partied and relaxed with his family here.

THE ESSENTIALS Private Transfers are 30 minutes from Nice / 74 Rooms & Suites / 4 Restaurants & Bars / Gym / Le Spa / Children's Club Dauphin / Tennis Courts / Over 100 year old Hotel

PRICES 7 nights from £1290 pp including flights and transfers

LE MAS CANDILLE, Cannes

Le Mas Candille is synonymous with the glamour of film festivals and red carpets, a starry glitz that extends to couture shops and bars, to the famously stylish beaches and to the super yachts moored at the port. But Le Mas Candille offers a classic Côte d'Azur glamour all of its own.

The original 18th century farmhouse takes its name from the Provençal word for 'candle', inspired by the mature cypress tree, one of many that adorn the grounds, along with old olive trees. Immerse yourself in French history with a stay in rooms that have been tastefully styled in a traditional and classic Provençal style, with antiques and art individually chosen from all over the world, complementing high tech contemporary facilities. Private balconies are warmed by the Riviera breezes and the terrace has wonderful views of the Mougins Valley.

Dining is a delight, since Le Mas Candille is home to two gourmet restaurants and for a really memorable behind-the-scenes experience, dine at the Chef's Table, with a personal guide to take you through the eight-course degustation menu.

THE ESSENTIALS Private transfers are 30 minutes from Nice / 45 Rooms & Suites / 2 Restaurants & Bars / Fitness Facilities / Spa / Children Welcome / 9 & 18-hole Golf Courses

PRICES 7 nights from £680 pp including flights, transfers and breakfast

TERRE BLANCHE, Provence

Terre Blanche is surrounded by the natural beauty of Provence and its picturesque hilltop villages. Fayence is perched on the hillside in an area that's steeped in tradition. Browse the weekly Provençal market, saunter down medieval alleyways, linger in shady squares, and go for a buggy ride down country lanes. The sophistication of the Côte d'Azur is also on your doorstep.

Villas and suites offer simple elegance and subtle luxury in the shape of marble bathrooms, private terraces shaded by oaks and pines, and a palette that reflects the colours of the landscape. The Kids' Club caters for younger children while adults enjoy access to Terre Blanche Spa, where the centrepiece is the indoor pool. Soothing sapphire blue waters are edged with white pillars and huge sunlit bay windows.

Terre Blanche is also a gastro destination. From a brasserie-style eatery to family favourite, the Tousco Grill next to the impressive outdoor infinity pool, and Michelin-starred Le Faventia, cuisine is inspired by the exquisite flavours of Provence. This resort is also beloved by golfers, with a challenging 18-hole course, and at the final hole of Le Riou you'll find Les Caroubiers, where you can celebrate the end of your round with lunch on the terrace.

THE ESSENTIALS Private transfers are 45 minutes from Nice / 115 Villas & Suites / 4 restaurants & Bars / Gym / Spa / Complimentary Kids' Club aged 2-12yrs / Two 18-hole Golf Courses / Infinity Pool

PRICES 7 nights from £1550 pp including flights, transfers and breakfast

LA RESERVE RAMATUELLE HOTEL, SPA & VILLAS, St Tropez

St Tropez is a quiet fishing village turned sexy jet-set hub, buzzing with millionaire yachts. But the tranquil beauty remains in the cobbled lanes and in the cafes where old men play pétanque beneath plane trees. La Réserve Ramatuelle perfectly reflects both sides of St Tropez.

Architecture, by Jean-Michel Wilmotte, is designed with sleek lines evoking a contemporary sailing vessel looking out over the Mediterranean, while interiors feature warm terracotta tiles, bright white walls and natural fabrics. It's a refined and luxurious paradise that's also a welcoming home from home.

Suites, rooms and villas are spacious and intimate, catering for romantic couples, groups of friends and families. Villas are perched on the hillside with picture windows framing sublime panoramas and fragrant gardens of pines and olive trees, while rooms and suites are private havens where you'll enjoy your own sunlit terrace and garden, lulled by a gentle breeze and the exotic sound of cicadas. Dine on classic Provençal and Mediterranean cuisine at 1 Michelin Star Restaurant 'La Voile' (the sail) and find a renewed sense of wellbeing at La Réserve Spa Ramatuelle, which encapsulates the beauty of the sea and the balmy Mediterranean air to help you feel deeply relaxed.

TURKEY

East meets West in Turkey, an exotic country that's beloved by discerning travellers for so many reasons, not least the rich history, the monuments, from Roman theatres to temples, the colourful city bazaars, and the stunning scenery of lush green forests and pristine Aegean beaches. This is the original turquoise coast. Turkish cuisine is renowned for its diversity and flavour, drawing influences from all corners of the former Ottoman Empire and is best sampled in its homeland and this is also the home of Turkish baths, or hammams.

WHAT'S ON

No trip to Turkey would be complete without sampling the amazing cuisine. How about meze on a Mediterranean harbour, spicy Anatolian kebabs, baklava for dessert, washed down with the unique flavour of raki? You'll also want to visit an authentic hammam and discover why Turkish Baths have remained popular since medieval times, for their relaxing and rejuvenation properties. Turkey is renowned for beach holidays and there's a wealth of sport and adventure on offer; from diving, and kayaking to rafting and canyoning in mountain gorges. The coastal resort of Bodrum has a wealth of attractions, from its atmospheric castle, its golden beaches, cool restaurants and clubs, its glitzy marina and whitewashed Aegean backstreets which are made for strolling around.

HOW TO GET THERE

There are many options throughout the year from most UK airports going to Bodrum, Izmir and further reaches via Istanbul. Airlines include British Airways, Turkish Airlines and EasyJet. Flying time is around 4hrs 15min.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

Summer in Turkey can hit highs of 36°C, if this is too much then avoid July and August. September to April temperatures range from 16°C to 27°C with May offering a comfortable heat to enjoy all the incredible sights.

AMANRUYA, Bodrum

On a sheltered hillside on the Bodrum peninsula, overlooking the wondrous coastline of the Aegean, the 34 stone pavilions of Amanruya are inspired by indigenous Turkish architecture and arranged like a traditional village. But all is not as it first appears, for hidden within each Pavilion are luxuriously contemporary living spaces shining with white Turkish marble and warmed with charcoal fireplaces and handmade 'kilim' rugs from Istanbul. The Pavilions are surrounded by tranquil private gardens with pergolas adorned with cushioned daybeds, terraces and heated marble swimming pool. Explore Turkish ruins and return to the Turkish spa for a Swedish massage or foot ritual, or take a dip in the 50-metre pool lined with green marble. End the day with a delicious Mediterranean meal in the intimate Dining Pavilion, made with fresh seafood and olive oils from the nearby villages. Meze platters are just perfect for in-suite dining or picnic options.

CROATIA & MONTENEGRO

CROATIA

This Central European and Mediterranean country is growing in popularity as a tourist destination, in part due to its starring role in the fantastically popular TV series 'Game of Thrones'. Fans of the series will recognise the city walls of Dubrovnik as the King's Landing and the Fortress of Klis, used in shots of Meereen. But there's much more to this enchanted land. There are eight national parks, many nature parks, and 1,185 islands in the Adriatic, of which only around 50 are populated. Explore fragrant pine forests, lace-makers and the party town of Novalja. The coast is also one of the sunniest places in Europe with watersports galore. 'Those who seek paradise on Earth should come to Dubrovnik,' rhapsodised George Bernard Shaw, while Zagreb has more museums per square foot than any other city in the world.

MONTENEGRO

Regularly voted a top tourist destination, this sovereign Balkan country in the south of the Adriatic is special for its wealth of natural beauty concentrated in a small area: travel from beaches, to lakes, fast-flowing rivers, and magnificent mountains, all in one day. Kotor is popular for its fascinating old town and is full of legends and stories. Sylvester Stallone and Queen Elizabeth II are among the celebrities who choose Sveti Stefan as their favourite place to vacation. There are several stunning marinas and national parks, the largest of which is Lake Skadar, the only national park dominated by aquatic and wetland ecosystems. And then there are the flower cities; Bijelo Polje, which is said to have been named for the white springtime flowers that covered the entire city; and Herceg Novi, noted for its abundance of mimosa trees.

WHAT'S ON

With a balmy climate, shimmering coastline and generous peppering of ancient towns to explore, Croatia occupies a firm spot at the top of many a traveller's wish list – Explore with a guided tour of Old Town Dubrovnik, known as the 'Pearl of the Adriatic' with its medieval and baroque centre almost untouched by the 21st century, not forgetting the Krka National Park and its series of stunning waterfalls and lakes, you'll be the envy of even the most avid of jet-setters. Combine all that with the majestic mountains and medieval villages of neighbouring Montenegro, tour the beautiful and unspoilt UNESCO World Heritage site towns of Perast and Kotor and you've bagged yourself an extraordinarily enchanting escape exploring two of the Balkans' most desirable destinations

HOW TO GET THERE

Flying to Croatia's Dubrovnik Airport is easier than you imagine, fly scheduled with British Airways or opt for a charter or low-cost carrier that offer a direct service from the UK with a flying time of about 3 hours. For Montenegro, it's Tivat Airport you would fly into with Easyjet or Montenegro Airlines, who offer a great little service from the UK. Flying time to Tivat is just over 3 hours.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

The climate of Croatia is classified as Csa Climate; a warm temperate Mediterranean climate with dry, warm summers and moderate, wet winters with the warmest month above 22°C over average. And Montenegro has a similar climate being on the coast but with alpine conditions in the mountains, the average summer coastal temperature tends to be more around 27°C (81°F) which is peak season (Jul-Aug), when the majority of visitors travel.

VILLA DUBROVNIK, Croatia

The tranquil and historic city of Dubrovnik is known as the Pearl of the Adriatic, making Villa Dubrovnik a beautiful pearl within a pearl. The tastefully renovated boutique hotel boasts a reputation for being the most exclusive resort in Croatia, offering a winning combination of world class luxury, impeccable service and a magnificent attention to detail.

Its location is also sublime, standing proudly on the cliffs above picturesque St. Jacob precinct, overlooking the turquoise waters of the Adriatic and the charming Old Town.

Its gardens are an oasis of scented bougainvillea and oleander, of pine, orange and lemon trees. Yet the beautiful landmarks of the fortified Old City are a few minutes away. The romance begins as soon as you arrive in your luxurious residence with its beautiful views of the Island of Lokrum and dramatic Old City walls. There are also six suites offering the pinnacle of luxury, and an ultra private villa.

The cuisine at Pjerin Restaurant is based around the Mediterranean small bites philosophy, and the ambience conjures the relaxed delight of an al fresco bistro. Enjoy the breathtaking city panorama from the Prosciutto & Wine Bar rooftop lounge.

Central to Villa Dubrovnik, quite literally since it's located on the third floor, is the Villa Spa, complete with restorative Bio Sauna.

You'll also want to make the most of the impeccable Concierge Services, with a range of carefully orchestrated programs that offer the perfect introduction to the rich cultural heritage of Dubrovnik. Sample the delights of the finest wine region in the country, and experience unique oyster tasting sessions at the oyster farms. And what better way to immerse yourself in this enchanting city than to visit a traditional Croatian household where you will dine as part of the family on traditional Croatian meals.

REGENT PORTO MONTENEGRO, Tivat

Explore southern Europe's most exciting new destination from a resplendent waterfront hotel which graces the spectacular Boka Bay, the largest natural harbour in the eastern Mediterranean and a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

The shoreline of historic hamlets and sandy beaches protected by dramatic mountains enjoys a sunny Mediterranean climate. The area was under Venetian rule for four centuries and though the Regent Porto Montenegro was designed by Parisian, Tino Zervudachi, its charming terracotta roofs were inspired by the many grand Italianate palazzi that decorate this chic nautical village. There are two accommodation wings offering all the glamour of the Italian Riviera. The "Venezia" Wing's 87 rooms, suites and penthouses evoke resplendent cabins in a luxury liner with a color scheme of blues, beiges and browns, while the "Aqua" Wing's earthy shades create a private oasis of serenity in its 62 rooms.

A central, double-height atrium with spellbinding sea views leads out onto a lushly peaceful water garden. There's a shimmering 20-metre outdoor infinity pool, 2 pools (600m²) on the Pool Podium (3200m²), signature Regent Spa with Finnish sauna, Turkish Bath Experience shower, Jacuzzi and Nail Salon, plus sophisticated restaurants serving dishes infused with Montenegrin and International flavours.

HOTEL EXCELSIOR, Dubrovnik

Reopened in 2017 after a tasteful refurbishment, this iconic and lavish landmark of Dubrovnik is five minutes away from the medieval fortress walls and has a spectacular seaside setting and the most wonderful views of the UNESCO Old City which lies close by.

The 158 rooms are charming havens, subtly grand, decorated in soothing neutral shades with vivid flourishes of colour. Light oak floors are adorned with modern rugs to create a warm ambience.

Hotel Excelsior occupies a former royal villa, and Queen Elizabeth II and Elizabeth Taylor are among its illustrious guests. You too can enjoy regal, star-studded luxuries. Wander in the beguiling gardens, lounge on the private beach, take a dip in the indoor pool, Jacuzzi whirlpools and Roman baths, let your cares drift away in the most stylish spa and dine on lobster and seafood in the glamorous Prora beach restaurant. Three restaurants here offer dining enhanced with views of the shimmering Adriatic. It's the perfect place to watch the sun setting behind the Dalmatian horizon.

AMAN SVETI STEFAN, Montenegro

Occupying a fifteenth century fortified village, the unique Suites and Cottages at Aman Sveti Stefan are reached via stone pathways and steps moulded to the contours of the island, and a further eight Suites are located on the mainland in the Villa Milocer, a former summer residence for royals. All the resort's 58 uniquely charming dwellings reinterpret their rich history as well as ensuring that guests have all the comforts of modern living.

What the wide choice of dining venues have in common is a dedication to using local produce, from the open air Piazza and Italian 'Arva' restaurant on the island, to the exclusive Dining Room at Villa Milocer on the mainland. The spa on the mainland site also takes its inspiration from Montenegro's hundreds of species of medicinal herbs and ancient tradition of wild harvesting.

Wander the ancient cedar and pine forest planted with olive trees, and explore the courtyards of red-tiled roofs. There are three pink-sand beaches to entice, as well as the UNESCO World Heritage-protected Bay of Kotor, reached by boat or car, and the baroque city of Perast.

MOROCCO

A North African country, Morocco is a melting pot of Berber, Arabian, European, African and Islamic cultures and its fantastical landscape stretching from desert sand dunes to the peaks of the High Atlas mountains has drawn adventures for decades. It's a cosmopolitan land where great dynasties built magnificent imperial cities and palaces. Wander the wondrously colourful Medieval medina and the marketplaces or souks of Marrakech, browsing stalls selling ceramics, jewellery and lanterns.

WHAT'S ON

Morocco is home to a host of visually striking buildings. For those planning a getaway to the country's former imperial capital of Marrakech, it would be wise to add some architectural gems to your itinerary, such as, the Koutoubia Mosque with its red bricks, turquoise tiling and sandstone, this is the symbol of Marrakech. The Atlas Mountains are a must-do for any traveller to Morocco. As we know, Morocco is also known for its delicious food, the Friday speciality Cous-Cous, the ever-present Tagine and the local Marrakshi dish of tangia, Harira. What about dessert? The locals pride themselves on the delights of their ice-creams and sorbets along with their French inspired cakes and pastries... it really is a place to be discovered.

HOW TO GET THERE

Flights to Marrakech Menara Airport from the UK can be booked with EasyJet, Ryanair as well as Royal Air Maroc scheduled airlines. Flying time is around 3hrs 50min.

WHEN TO TRAVEL

Winter is 'the season' to travel to Morocco with temperatures averaging 22°C between November and March. Rain is rare and in the summer, temperatures can soar to 40°C which is due to the fiery desert wind.

ROYAL MANSOUR, Marrakech

In the heart of spellbinding Marrakech, The Royal Mansour is a unique masterpiece celebrating Moorish crafts and architecture. From the minute you stand before the dramatic entrance of cedar wood, metal and sculpted masterwork you know you're somewhere special. In these beautiful riads, carved arches lead to a private ground-floor courtyard and fountain, up to a private steam room and rooftop terrace warmed by a fire at night and offering shelter from the sun in a Moorish tent. Sensual delights abound, from their world class restaurants, offering Moroccan and French dishes, with Asian cuisine served in Le Jardin restaurant and the lavish Spa Tea Lounge, scented with bougainvillea, jasmine and gardenias. A kids club and activities ranging from a chocolate laboratory to a wide range of outdoors activities such as hot air ballooning is what makes this a magical destination for all the family.

LA VILLA DES ORANGERS, Marrakech

A Relais & Châteaux hideaway simply oozing local colour and charm. Originally a 1930s house owned by a wealthy judge, it's now been extended, updated and refreshed, yet none of the original ambience has been forfeited – the walls are still covered with tadelakt, the courtyards still fragrant with orange trees and the welcome still as warm as you'd get in a private home. Anything from a gourmet French chef to three pools are on offer here; the 27 luxury guest rooms all different shapes and sizes, of course, but some with access to a rooftop pool and others to a semi-private pool. Meals are usually served wherever you want them, the shaded courtyards and rooftop terrace overlooking the Koutoubia Mosque just as popular as the two restaurants.

THE ESSENTIALS Private Transfers are 15 minutes from Marrakech Airport / 27 Rooms & Suites / 1 Restaurant / Nuxe Spa / Children over 10yrs are welcome

PRICES 3 nights from £605 pp including flights, transfers and breakfast

AMANJENA, Marrakech

Surrounded by date palms and olive trees, this oasis of indulgent tranquility on the edge of Marrakech lies close to the Medina, Atlas Mountains, the Sahara Desert, and the Atlantic Coast. Its Moroccan heritage is very much in evidence. The 40 elegant Pavilions and Maisons radiate from an ancient basin in a modern take on the style of a Sultan's palace while the soothing sound of fountains and glow of candle lanterns create a Moorish ambience. The traditional Moroccan and modern Japanese "Nama" restaurants feature Arabic swords and an onyx fountain, while Spa treatments include a Moroccan cleansing ritual and massage with Argan oil.

THE ESSENTIALS Private transfers are 20 minutes from Marrakech Airport / 40 Pavilions & Maisons / 4 Restaurants & Bars / Aman Spa / Children Welcome / Tennis / Golf / Free shuttle to Medina

PRICES 4 nights from £1195 pp including flights, transfers and breakfast

LA SULTANA OUALIDIA, Oualidia

The village of Oualidia lies on the Atlantic coast, a two and a half hour drive from Marrakech and two hours from Casablanca, fronting a salt water lagoon, famous for oyster farms and flocks of pink flamingos. This picturesque and tranquil site of ecological importance is where you'll find the Moorish fort of La Sultana Oualidia, with its 12 rooms and suites. Rows of Oleander form the ceiling beneath which elegant painted wooden furniture and ancient marble floors create a zen-like ambience. The landscaped grounds shelter grass-roofed cabanas and turquoise swimming pool.

Dine on speciality dishes such as Sea-Perch cooked in a salt crust, oysters, lobster, Bouillabaisse and grilled meat, with vegetables grown in the hotel's own vegetable garden. Enjoy a relaxing Argan oil massage in the cathedral-like oasis of the stone-walled spa. Try a Natural Moroccan Detox and sip 'Moroccan Mint Tea' in a private sea water Jacuzzi. Embark on birdwatching safari as you kayak on the lagoon, which is also perfect for stand-up paddlers. This is a renowned surfer's paradise and the colourful Saturday souk is a gathering for locals who journey by donkey or donkey carriage.

LA SULTANA MARRAKECH, Marrakech

La Sultana is a full-blown assault on the senses, its precious woods, gleaming copper and fascinating artefacts all spot on in a five star luxury hotel lying right in the heart of the Medina. Indeed this ochre-coloured 'Small Luxury Hotel of the World' really allows you to live and breathe North Africa. Its origins as five separate Riads still celebrated in disparate themes ranging from Senegal to imperial Fez. Yet the main house is a delightfully exotic testament to all the traditional craftsmanship of Marrakech, the swimming pool and sun terrace at its heart, back dropped by carved pillars and brick walls. The marble-clad Sultana Spa is also there to work its magic on you, although you may prefer to make for your own private sanctuary, all of the 28 guest rooms and suites, individual havens complete with anything from tadelakt walls to antique furnishings. Whatever you do, Moroccan, Mediterranean and Oriental cuisine awaits in a variety of enticing venues.

KASBAH TAMADOT, Atlas Mountains

A 45-minute drive outside Marrakech, Sir Richard Branson's rose-tinted retreat is all about the serenity of the Atlas Mountains. You'll be hard pressed to discover anywhere quite as spellbinding as this fairy-tale getaway which still overflows with antiques picked up from the Orient and Middle East. Yet its 2005 re-invention marries the old with the new, the softest of shades with the brightest of colours and of course nowhere reflects this unbridled exoticism more than the beautifully decorated bedrooms and suites. Yet for panoramic vistas it's hard to beat the infinity-edge pool; the indoor pool and treatment rooms beckoning if you want to be pampered; cooking classes and guided mule treks on offer if you prefer to explore. When it comes to dining, the traditional Moroccan, Berber or European dishes are served in the romantic Kanoun restaurant and accompanied by either candlelight, firelight or starlight.

CITIES

Paris, capital of France and world capital of art, fashion and food, with designer boutiques and cafe culture. This is the city of romance with wide boulevards, the majestic River Seine and landmarks of the Eiffel Tower and Notre-Dame. Football fans famously flock to Barcelona, but the capital of Catalonia has so much to offer - street musicians, living statues, boutiques, tapas bars and Catalan cuisine. Lisbon is a small and friendly city with many faces, from Roman to Baroque and a modern urban port area, the Park of Nations. Madrid enjoys a reputation as one of the most lively and energetic cities in the world, boasting more bars than any other city on earth, but is also beloved for its art, architecture and food.

WHAT'S ON

Experience Bastille Day in Paris, or stay from July to September for the Invalides Aux Nuit where the facades of the interior of Invalides light up to tell the story of the city's colourful history. Explore the highlights of Barcelona by foot or metro and tourist bus, from Gaudi to live music in beautiful concert halls like Gran Teatre del Liceu. Lisbon has much to offer throughout the year, from the Obidos medieval market, parades, famous Festival in the Square and outdoor concerts taking in musical styles from jazz to rock. In Madrid, the changing of the guard at the largest royal palace in Western Europe is a must see, as is the famous Cibeles Fountain and Puerta del Sol, the dramatic square located in the city's pulsing heart. With a myriad of bars and world class museums and galleries, you'll have never felt more alive.
